

ADVANCES IN WILDLIFE RESEARCH WITH SPECIAL EMPHASIS ON SLOTH BEAR CONSERVATION IN INDIA

Jointly Organized by Wildlife and Conservation Biology (WCB) Research Foundation, India
International Association for Bear Research & Management (IBA), USA

In Partnership with Navegaon Nagzira Tiger Reserve, Maharashtra Forest Department

Supported by Exploring Womanhood Foundation, India

Date
January 19-23, 2026
Venue
Navegaon Nagzira Tiger Reserve,
Gondia, Maharashtra

The training programme is designed to train young researchers, students and conservation professionals with the recent techniques and hands on experience in research and management for bear species in India.

Course Outline

- Sloth bear Monitoring & Ecology
- Habitat Assessment
- Overview of RS-GIS Tools for Habitat Assessment
- Species Distribution Modeling
- Use of Microbial & Molecular Techniques to Study Sloth bear Health
- Human-Sloth bear Conflict Mitigation
- Grant Writing & Opportunities in Bear Research

WHO CAN APPLY

- MSc and PhD scholars
- Young researchers, faculties and conservation professionals working in the field of ecology and wildlife

10% OFF
FOR WCB
MEMBERS

REGISTRATION FEES

INR 3000*

Includes Certificate, Accommodation on sharing basis, Food, Field work and Training materials

* Payment after selection

Apply before
November 30th, 2025

using
QR Code

Participants will be selected by a selection committee, 30 selected candidates will be notified by December 05, 2025 for further procedure including registration and other information.

FOR FURTHER DETAILS CONTACT

Dr Nishith Dharaiya
Course Coordinator

Email: wcbresearch@gmail.com Phone: +91 8320519905 | +91 9998981560